

Course Introduction

Are you looking to upskill your Teaching Assistants?

This Level 2 Certificate is aimed at recognising and developing the professional status of this important role in schools.

This NCFE employer recognised certificate, will allow your staff to develop the skills and knowledge needed to support children and young people to gain the best start in life and provide them with a safe and secure environment. The qualification is delivered on a one-to-one basis within your school environment and online through Teams/Zoom.

You will cover all the key elements needed for this profession. You will be working under the direction of a teacher, contributing to preparing the classroom for learning activities and working with individual pupils, who require extra support.

Qualification Structure

The NCFE Level 2 Certificate in Supporting Teaching and Learning in schools contains the following mandatory units:

- ✓ Child and young person development
- ✓ Safeguarding the welfare of children and young people
